West Coast Fishermen Bitter Against Government.

A despatch from Washington last night says:

In reference to his inquiry as to the extent to which American fishermen have been interrupted in the pursuit of their fishing in Newfoundland waters in violation of treaty rights, Secretary Root today received, through Congressman Gardner of Massachusetts, a copy of the following telegram from Capt. Jerry Cook of the American fishing sch. Carrie W. Babson, now in Birchy Cove, Bay of Islands.

"Not the least bit of trouble. Everything going along smoothly. All vessels loading."

A later despatch says that herring are reported scarce.

A despatch from St. John's, last night says that the bitterness of the fishermen on the west coast against the government because of the order forbidding them to sell herring to the Americans, is increasing and their attitude has become so threatening that the British man-of-war Latona has been despatched from here to Bay of Islands.

The commander of the Latona has received his instructions from the British government and these are believed to include a warning to so act in the enforcement of the Newfoundland government's edict that no friction with the United States government will result.

The American vessels at Bay of Islands and other places on the treaty coast began yesterday the work of hiring Newfoundlanders outside the three-mile limit. Some of the American captains, it is reported, have shipped crews inside the limit. The native fishermen made good catches yesterday, but because of the government's attitude they were unable to sell what they caught.

The Latona will arrive at Bay of Islands tomorrow and her presence may bring about a crisis in the relations of the fishermen and the government.

Several Gloucester Vessels Arrive and Report Bad Weather.

Matters of Interest from Cape Breton Port.

(From Our Special Correspondent.)

Louisburg, C. B., Oct. 21, 1905.—During the present week a goodly number of Gloucester vessels have been in at this port. They were schs. W. E. Morrissey, Arbutus, Helen F. Whitten, Senator Saulsbury, Hattie L. Trask, Talisman and Ralph F. Hodgdon, the latter vessel being bound to Newfoundland for a cargo of salt herring.

On the passage down the Hodgdon was struck by a heavy squall, and had her mainboom broken when she arrived off this harbor. It was blowing heavy from the northwest, and the vessel being unable to beat in, was towed in by the tug E. M. Cates. A new boom was procured and the Hodgdon is now ready to sail for Newfoundland.

Sch. Senator Saulsbury, Capt. McNeil, arrived here Wednesday with her sails badly torn and to land one of her men who was unwell. After making repairs to her sails, the schooner sailed yesterday for the fishing grounds.

Sch. Talisman, Capt. Newman Wharton, arrived last night from the fishing grounds, with 200,000 pounds fish on board, a fairly good second trip. Capt. Wharton reports the weather very bad for fishing. It has been blowing a gale nearly every day for the last week. If a northeast wind springs up the Talisman may go home, if not, another set or two will be made before leaving.

Some of the local fishing boats got as high as 1200 pounds of codfish yesterday. There is plenty of bait now, but the weather is rough and the dogfish still infest the fishing grounds in great quantities.

A few very nice halibut were caught by some fishermen yesterday, which sold here at five cents per pound.

BIG TRIPS.

Several Shackers In Today with Splendid Fares.

Sch. Diana, Capt. William Corkum, is in from Cashes this morning with a splendid fare, 160,000 pounds of fresh fish, one of the best shack trips of the season. The other fine shack fares in this morning are sch. Lizzie M. Stanley, Capt. Robert Nauss, 110,000 pounds of fresh fish; sch. Annie Greenlaw, Capt. Dwyer, 110,000 pounds of fresh fish; sch. Arcadia, Capt. Geoffrey Thomas, 120,000 pounds fresh fish; sch. Mooween, Capt. Joseph Hatch, 100,000 pounds fresh fish.
